The Christa Aluotto Summer Soccer Camp 2009

SOCCER CAMP
FOR GIRLS
JULY 26-30

Drew University Campus • Madison, New Jersey

The Program

The Christa Aluotto Soccer Camp offers a comprehensive curriculum to players of all levels. Campers are instructed in the development of basic skills, overall knowledge of the game, tactical awareness, and other needs of the growing soccer player. Regardless of playing level or age, campers are provided with the complete soccer experience.

Camp Director

Christa Racine has led the Drew University women's soccer program since 1994. The program's all-time leader in wins, Racine has been named the Coach of the Year three times, most recently in 2005, and in 1994 was named the DIII Coach of the Year by the CSANJ. She has led her teams to 11 conference playoff appearances, five ECAC Tournament appearances and an NCAA Tournament berth. A native of Morris County, Racine was an All-American at local high school Morris Catholic prior to attending Rutgers University. She led the Scarlet Knights to a four-year record of 50-24-7, with three consecutive ECAC Championships from 1990-1992. Racine was honored by the Newark Star Ledger as a member of New Jersey's "All-Century" Team. She holds a USSF "A" license.

Camp Staff

The staff at the Christa Aluotto Soccer Camp is a talented group of USSF and NSCAA licensed college and high school coaches and top collegiate players who are dedicated to providing an educational and fun soccer environment for each camper. In addition, fully certified athletic trainers are on location and available 24 hours a day.

Team Training

Club and high school teams may come together and will be trained as a team. This is a great way to get ready for the upcoming season! Have a team representative contact us for details.

Camp Sessions (July 26-30)

Junior Camper (Ages 8 – 9)

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. • Cost: $285
